About us

We, NetCologne IT Services, are a subsidiary of the regional telecommunications provider NetCologne. As a reliable strategic partner from Cologne, we provide companies and schools with innovative ICT technologies and offer them advanced solutions for their digitalization. From IT strategy consulting to the development, service and support of complex IT infrastructures, we offer everything from a single source. We are also responsible for taking over our customers' IT operations in accordance with the ITIL framework - through our Cologne service desk or on site. From our modern, certified data center in Cologne, we offer innovative managed services, including individually tailored cloud computing solutions.

With our education services, we turn school IT into enterprise IT. From IT infrastructure to cloud services, identity management, hardware and software through to IT support, administration and training. With us, teachers and students get everything they need for the modern classroom and thus have digitalization fully under control.
